SIX OF SEVEN MEN WHO HAVE CROSSED OCEAN CELEBRATE

America and Columbia Men Guests at Ceremonies in French Capitol

PARIS, July 4. (AP)—The six Americans who followed the air trail which Lindbergh traced across the Atlantic were honored together in Paris today for the anniversary of America's birth as a nation. Together, the men who came over in the Columbia and America broke bread with Louis Blériot, the Frenchman, whose flight across the English channel 18 years ago first linked thru the air nations separated by the sea.

The airman attended group ceremonies this afternoon in their honor at the home of Le Matin, whose columns are ever friendly to the United States. Tonight the aviators were guests of the American Chamber of Commerce at its annual Fourth of July banquet.

The lion's share of the honors were heaped on Commander Byrd, but if the French thought of him more than they thought of the others, it can be said that he was unusually thoughtful of them.

Alone he went to call on the mother of Captain Nungesser to offer her consolation; alone he visited the hospital where M. Jussier, and former French ambassador to the United States lay ill.

Byrd Speaks at Banquet
In one commander's words this was an act of courtesy to a man who had devoted his life for a better understanding between the two republics.

Tonight it was Byrd who spoke for all the trans-Atlantic fliers at the banquet.

Commander Byrd also called on Marshal Foch who showed keen interest in hearing about the American flight.

"It was one of the greatest feats in history," he said.

"There is no one in the world I would rather hear say that than you," Byrd replied.

Crowds were waiting to see the airman at every place they went. All Paris made a great display of the Stars and Stripes, as much in welcome to the fliers as to celebrate Independence Day.

A little past 10 a. m. Byrd and Balchen stepped out of their hotel and acknowledged the cheers of the waiting multitude. They were driven to the Place des Etoiles where thousands had gathered about the statue of Alan Seeger for the first of many ceremonies by which Paris today observed the Fourth of July.

Many Flags Displayed
Scores of flags were flying the tri-color, the Stars and Stripes, banners of the American Legion and various French regiment and ex-soldier organizations. Holding places near the center of the ceremonies was a group of men mutilated in the war. Some of them did not have eyes to see the commander of the American.

The speakers included the American charge d'affaires, Sheldon Whitehouse; M. Delsol, president of the municipal council; M. Chatelet, vice-president of the society of former combatants; J. M. Thomas, commander of the French department of the American Legion and representatives of other organizations.

The mother of the famous French flier embraced the American airman and told him that during his flight she had prayed for him, just as she had told Colonel Charles Lindbergh, M. Nungesser told Commander Byrd that she still believed her son was alive.

Says Aviators Are Audacious
"Aviators have an audacity and courage," she said, "which puts them above other men."

FEWER DEATHS THIS YEAR REPORTED FOR FOURTH ACCIDENTS

More Stringent Laws and Better Enforcement Cut Tragedies

CHICAGO, July 4. (AP)—Premature celebration of Independence Day caused several deaths and many injuries although the fatality list was small compared with previous years due to stringent fireworks laws.

In Milwaukee the police conducted a vigorous campaign against violators of fireworks laws, arresting more than 500 persons.

The first death was reported Saturday from Trumway, Wis., where Arnold Ford, 8, was killed when he put a giant firecracker in an empty gasoline tank causing an explosion when gas fumes were ignited.

One of two persons injured in Springfield was Mrs. Leola Hickson, 26, who was burned and lacerated when a giant fire cracker thrown into a moving street car exploded in her face.

An explosion at Valparaiso, Ind., touched off $5,000 worth of fireworks in a hardware store. Two firemen were overcome.

The Fourth in Other Places
Philadelphia—Ringling of the bell in Independence Hall tower marked the opening of the fourth of July observance in Philadelphia where 151 years ago the old Liberty bell sent forth its notes of freedom.

Chicago—The dawn's early light of the Fourth of July found the American, British, and Japanese delegations to the naval conference sleeping soundly after a strenuous day on nearby golf courses.

Montreal—Snow in July is a record just established in Montreal. After two days of stifling heat, the city was visited with a mild, almost imperceptible snowfall last night.

LINDY DROPS FLOWERS ON ESCORT'S COFFIN
OTTAWA, Ont., July 4. (AP)—Flowers dropped from the air by Col. Lindbergh today adorned the casket of Lieutenant J. T. Johnson, United States army aviator, killed while escorting his comrade to Ottawa, Sunday.

For fifty miles as the funeral train proceeded from Ottawa toward Fenton, Mich., for burial, Lindbergh flew low in the "Spirit of St. Louis" and tossed out blossoms.

The flowers were gathered by the train crew and placed on the Stars and Stripes that covered the casket.

Lindbergh's tribute to Lieutenant Johnson was offered yesterday in the midst of a program in which Col. Lindbergh was honored by Canadian officials in connection with the celebration of the diamond jubilee of confederation.

Des Moines, Iowa, July 4. (AP)—Twenty thousand notices of reward have been mailed to sheriffs and identification bureaus in the United States, Canada and Mexico by the state bureau of identification concerning Robert Burris, who escaped from the state penitentiary, and Edward Watson, who is wanted to answer charges for the murder of "Sonny" Melvyn Ford Dodge, May 1.

Five hundred dollars has been offered for Watson's arrest and $200 for Burris.

WATCH AS COMPASS
Iowa City, Ia., July 4. (AP)—If navigation instruments used by a trans-oceanic flier fail, the correct use of a watch and star-chart will put him at least within 35 miles of his goal, says Professor Charles G. Wylie, astronomer and mathematician at the University of Iowa.

The watch must be set by sidereal, or star time, however, according to Professor Wylie.

NEW PACIFIC CONTENDER

Lees, Jr., to pass examinations for a transport license announced today that he would be in the race for the trans-Pacific airflight contest, leaving for the coast early next month.

GETS FLIER'S SIGNATURE
Paris, July 4. (AP)—A dollar bill which he probably could swap for considerably more than 100 cents is owned by Abbott Bugnoles, II, of New York. It has the signature of six of the seven men who have flown across the Atlantic this summer.

CHINA WARNS ARMS PARLEY TO KEEP OUT

Hands Off Problems Request Given At Geneva

GENEVA, Switzerland, July 4. (AP)—Fourth of July Chinese fireworks exploded at the tri-partite naval conference today when Nationalist China issued a solemn warning that the delegates must not discuss questions affecting the interests of the Chinese people.

This warning was communicated to the press by Chu Chao-Hsin, Chinese minister of the navy and the league of nations. It is believed to be China's answer to reports in British newspapers that Great Britain and Japan are considering the wisdom of renewing the Anglo-Japanese alliance which died at the Washington conference when the four-power Pacific pact was substituted for it.

Chinese circles see in such renewal an Anglo-Japanese combine against China.

"It has been repeatedly reported in the press in the far east," said Chu, "that the naval conference may also consider questions relating to China. I am therefore requested by the Chinese Nationalist government to declare that the government and the people of China are in an anti-Soviet campaign to recognize any decisions affecting China which may be arrived at by the present or any other conference in which China is not represented and is not participating in a position of equality in the deliberations."

Do Not Seek Pact
Chu Chao-Hsin was appointed to represent China in the league council in the Peking government and his formal declaration today as spokesman of the Nationalist government is regarded as throwing light on the increased power which Chinese diplomats give to the Nationalists.

The talk of renewing the Anglo-Japanese alliance seems to have been received coldly in Japanese circles. In Geneva where apparently it is thought such an alliance would be objectionable from two standpoints: First, because it would create an impression among the Chinese that Japan will back the British policy in China and, second, an impression in Soviet Russia with which the Japanese have fairly satisfactory relations.

It is averred, however, that the Japanese have a pretty clear idea that an alliance in the Pacific between them and the British not to the liking of the United States and that the Japanese do not desire to prejudice the Japo-American relations which now are deemed excellent.

In the meantime it is understood a reliable authority that the Japanese are "shocked" at Great Britain's demand for big cruiser strength under the projected Geneva naval treaty. It is likely that the Japanese will formally tell the British that they consider the British demand excessive and as making a treaty exceedingly difficult to elaborate.

Fatal Accidents Mar Celebration Of July Fourth

(By The Associated Press)

Independence Day deaths directly attributable to fireworks, firecrackers and guns probably numbered not many more than a dozen, but drownings, automobile accidents and other mishaps incident to the celebration of the day increased the casualty toll to two score or more. In addition several hundred were injured. Nine fatalities from various causes were reported from Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and New York.

Two girls died in a fire at New Albany, Ind., started from fireworks with which they were playing.

Chicago's single death was of a 10-year old girl whose dress caught fire from a sparkler.

At Fort Collins, Colo., an enlisted soldier was killed when a 48-gun salute to the Union was fired before he got away from its mouth.

An airplane crash cost the lives of two men and the injury of another near Aurora, Ind.

At Spokane, Wash., a 51-year old man was killed by the explosion of a bomb of his own invention. Explosion of a dynamite bomb at Westfield, Mass., maimed two boys and injured a third.

Great Barrington, in the same state, reported the death of a child whose clothing caught fire from exploding firecrackers.

The largest list of injured came from St. Louis, Mo., where 228 were hurt more or less seriously. Twenty were injured in Chicago.

where the sale of fireworks is prohibited.

A report late Monday night from Des Moines, Ill., said that 20 were injured in a fireworks explosion there, although there were no fatalities.

Other Fourth of July Notes
Cincinnati—Two men were killed and another injured seriously when the airplane in which they were following a racing hydroplane on the Ohio River at Laurey Island, near Aurora, crashed into the river bank.

Spokane, Wash.—Stephen P. Harris, 51, was fatally injured when he fired a bomb of his own invention to celebrate Independence Day. Harry borrowed two blacksmith's anvils and after placing a heavy charge of gunpowder on one anvil, placed the second anvil on top. Harris heated the end of a crossbar red hot in a forge and touched it to the powder. The concussion hurled the crossbar into his abdomen causing almost instant death.

Fort Collins, Colo.—Jack Alban, 3, an enlisted soldier, was fatally wounded today during the firing of a 48 gun salute to the Union. After the 22nd gun had been shot, Alban took a ramrod to the mouth of the cannon to release the 23rd, which was stuck. BROOKHART ATTACKS RESERVE SYSTEM IN TALK TO WESTERNERS
Charges Bank is Moneyed Trust to Promote High Interest

BELOIT, Kansas, July 4. (AP)—Assailing the federal reserve system and the president's veto of the McNary-Haugen bills, Senator Smith W. Brookhart, of Iowa, in an address here today, called upon the people of the West and South "to unite in a common program to end the financial rule that dominates both parties."

Senator Brookhart charged the federal reserve bank, by its own description in its official book, is "a money trust for the purpose of maintaining higher rates of interest while diverting this vast sum for deposit into New York at low rates of interest for speculation."

The veto of the McNary-Haugen bill Senator Brookhart called "a veto of the right of the farmer to economic equality, a veto of the west and south with an underwriting of Wall street."

COWBOYS CALL ON PRESIDENT ON BIRTHDAY

Coolidge Turns Kid Again On His 55th Anniversary

RAPID CITY, S. D., July 4. (AP)—President Coolidge was given a complete cowboy outfit today on his fifty fifth birthday and he brought delight to his guests and boy scouts who presented the outfit by appearing on the front lawn of the state game lodge in the full regalia of a western horseman.

The hills surrounding the lodge resounded with cheers as in the middle of the birthday party the president returned from the house wearing a bright red shirt, blue kerchief, chaps, boots, spurs and "ten gallon" hat.

Mrs. Coolidge appeared surprised but Walter Flachfenhar, leader of the cowboys of Terry, Mont., who presented the chaps and who helped the president into his cowboy outfit, let loose a "yip" as he walked down the steps with Mr. Coolidge.

The guests took up the yell as the president made his way slowly to protect the new spurs he had donned.

Cameramen Busy
Smilingly enjoying the party, the president turned himself into the hands of his guests, cheering cowboys from Terry and a happy troop of boy scouts from Custer, S. D. They asked for pictures in every pose and he did everything but ride the frisky bay mare given him by the scouts.

Photographers had a field day as they caught the president in his strange attire and there were cries for more films as he did one unexpected thing after another. Mrs. Coolidge finally came to the rescue and handed a motion picture machine to James Lillis, one of the photographers who had run out of film.

Altho "Kit", the birthday horse was a bit startled at all the commotion, Mr. Coolidge held a tight rein and led her about the lawn in order to make possible a picture of her with the scouts.

Journeying 350 miles in automobiles from Terry, Mont., the cowboy band of 25 pieces serenaded Mr. Coolidge from the front lawn while he was at lunch. As he and Mrs. Coolidge came from the lodge, the 24 boy scouts rode down from the hills at Custer, 15 miles away, on horses. They rode past in formation and saluted the president. After the leader had presented the greetings of the two organizations to the president he received each outfit and then was presented gifts by them.

The band gave him a pair of buckskin chaps with the letters "Cal" outlined in silver studs on each leg. The chaps also bore a leather medallion picture of a cowboy riding a bucking broncho.

Passes Birthday Cake
A broad smile lighted Mr. Coolidge's face as Carl Locke, one of the scouts, came up and in behalf of the scouts presented "Kit."

As he handed over the reins of the bay mare, Locke declared, "and we hope you will like her."

Richard Arnold, scout, came forward with boots, shirt and kerchief.

After cutting a large cake given to him by Mrs. Mary Halley, a resident of Rapid City, the president passed pieces of the cake to Mrs. Coolidge, Mrs. Halley and his guests.

Disappearing into the house the president donned his cowboy outfit including the broadrimmed hat given him by a delegation from Deadwood. Before he was able to come out, however, he sent for one of the cowboys to help him in putting on his birthday suit.

Sings Invitation
Before the party was over Korse Johnson, under-sheriff of Prairie County, Montana, a member of the Terry Band, sang a song to Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge. The words, written to the tune of "That Old Gang of Mine," went:

"We've come to say hello to you, our dear old friend Cal, and all the folks back home would like to see you and your gal."

"You're invited to old Montana. Put on these chaps and bandana. And please remember that we are with you Cal. With you and your gal."

GRACE'S AIR SHIP CRASHES AFTER HOPOFF

NATIONAL SOCIETY OF EDUCATION HAS OPENING MEETING

Ex-University President Urges Opposition to Central Control

SEATTLE, Wash., July 4. (AP)—The 10,000 delegates and visitors attending the sixty fifth annual convention of the National Education association today heard themselves referred to as the "Master Workmen" upon whose efforts depended the future of democracy in America and also were exhorted to declare the independence of education from political control. In his presidential address, Dr. Francis G. Blair, of Springfield, Ill., speaking on "The America Melting Pot" declared that active direction of educational matters be left to the very pit of the melting pot and the school playground was the greatest kindergarten of democracy ever conceived.

Dr. Henry Suzzallo, former president of the University of Washington, called upon the educators to oppose the centralization of control in education. He urged that active direction of educational matters be left to the educational profession, much as engineering matters are left to engineers and health problems left to doctors of medicine.

"Chicago is an example of a city where the most disgraceful demagoguery of recent days has dragged the school management through a campaign of misrepresentation which is almost unparalleled. The mayor of the city should have nothing whatever to do with the control of the schools. A special board of education, elected directly by the people from a Chicago school district, should be charged with their management. There are other less dramatic instances which might be cited."

Dr. Blair asserted the teacher is the greatest force in the process by which the diversified races of the earth are molded into the American nation.

"Above school grounds, athletic fields, buildings, laboratories, libraries, courses of study, rising supreme is the character and influence of the teacher," he said. "If the teacher fails, the entire system fails. If he succeeds all is success."

Grace made a good takeoff, 5:24 a. m., from the rough and bumpy Barking Sands runway which had previously punctured the tires of his plane's wheel halting two attempts to fly. He circled the island of Kauai, testing his machine before sailing off across the Pacific.

Trouble developed when the plane was over the village of Keala. The tail of the monoplane was seen to flutter and then the plane plunged to earth in thorn bushes at the edge of the flyin field. Grace had flown 51 minutes when he crashed to land at 6:11 a. m. The fuselage and one wing were wrecked and there was other damage but the propeller and motor were intact.

Grace returned heartbroken to the residence where he had been guest.

"I did my best, that's all that can say," he said brokenly.

Future plans for a trans-Pacific flight have not been formulated. The cause of the crash, trouble was not determined. Experts thought it might have been due to strain brought upon the machine by its load of more than 4,000 pounds.

In 25 Crashes
Today's crash was the twenty fifth for Grace since he began flying 13 years ago. To provide that for picture audiences, Grace wrecked 18 planes. His other airplane wrecks were accidental most of them in the performance of his work as a stunt flier. His only serious accident was nearly fatal. It cracked a vertebrae in his neck and earned for him the sobriquet of "The Broken Necked Flier."

The flight which failed was a 2,400 mile race from San Francisco to Los Angeles. He had about 115 miles longer, dependent upon gasoline supply.

NEW YORK, July 4. (AP)—The Yankees scored 33 runs in two games today, the first in a double header today, the second in a game with the Washington Senators, their first game since the American league lead. The scores were 12 and 21 to 1.

Two round trips by Lou Gehrig, walloping Yankee first baseman, figured largely in the score, and gave him the lead over teammate, Babe Ruth, in home hitting.

Gehrig made No. 27 in the first inning of the first game, No. 28 in the sixth game of the second while the Babe failed to add to his 26.

Gehrig's homer in the second featured a nine run rally in the sixth. The bases were full and the wallop came off the bat of Gehrig.

FLOWERS-ROSENBLOOM BOUT ENDS IN DRAW

CHICAGO, July 4. (AP)—"Tiger" Flowers and Maxie Rosenbloom fought 10 rounds to a draw in the windup of the Fourth of July fight card at White Sox Park tonight.

The first eight rounds of the fight were fought during a rain but it failed to slow up either of the middleweights. The fight began with a ring full of fists and the boxers rushed out to renew their feud. The last time they fought, Tiger lost to Rosenbloom on a foul.

The going was fast and furious despite the rain, although Flowers had trouble keeping his feet on the slippery canvass and just before the going ending the fourth round was sounded, Tiger fell on his back and in jumping up, he kicked Rosenbloom in the chin and floored the New Yorker.

Maxie knocked Flowers down in the sixth round with a hard right to the face but the wet ring aided in sending the Georgia deacon to the canvass and he was back on his feet and swinging at the Gotham boy before a count was started.

The two boxers traded punch for punch and each of their supporters thought both boys deserved a decision.

My Sullivan of St. Paul, won a six round decision over Harry Dudley, negro fighter from San Francisco. They fought at 146 pounds.

back in his eyes. Alban stood in front of the cannon's mouth as the shell was fired.

Mexico City — American residents in Mexico City had the quietest Fourth of July that old times can remember, chiefly because of business depression and the fact that the foreign colony is considerably smaller than it used to be.

Des Moines, Ill.—Two children were injured, perhaps fatally and 20 others were injured less seriously when fireworks exploded in the forest preserve in Des Moines tonight. A crowd of 2,000 persons stampeded in an effort to escape the burning explosives which shot in all directions and some children were trampled.

suaded that her son might still be found. He told her he would have liked personally to have assisted in the search for Nungesser and Gail, but that preparations for America's flight had prevented this but neither he nor his crew had wished to begin their own flight until everything possible had been done to find her son. As a representative of the Nungesser-Gail fund committee in the United States, he informed her that she soon would receive a check for $30,000 from that organization. The aged French woman lifted a picture of her boy from a nearby table and gave it to the American commander, then kissed his cheeks in bidding him goodbye.

Mid-day had arrived and it was almost time for luncheon at M. Bleriot's. The man who first flew across the English Channel was host to the seven American fliers who crossed the Atlantic by air this summer.

French Hearts Touched
"Scarcely a month ago," said M. Bleriot, "we celebrated here the first crossing of the Atlantic. The audacity of Lindbergh seemed then to us to put a final point to the immediate possibilities of aviation. Above everything else we saw in his gesture a symbol of the future drawing together of two great friendly nations. And now several weeks later, two other exploits have again touched our hearts."

"Chamberlin and Levine, with a machine that functioned perfectly, beat the long distance record of the world and showed us that 100 horse power is enough to take one man from New York to the center of Europe in a single jump."

In a loud monoplane, Commander Byrd and his companions having organized their expedition with admirable care accomplished an effort that history will record as one of the finest triumphs of human genius. History will say that it was they who first made a commercial voyage across the Atlantic.

Crowds Throng Streets
When the luncheon was completed the aviators, responding to the appeals of the crowds in the street, appeared on the balcony of the Bleriot home to acknowledge the cheers. They were then conducted to the Matin building. The Boulevard was packed with people waiting to see them. Buglers signalled "Attention" as they walked into the building under a canopy of flags. Inside were officials of the veterans' bureau and war mutilated.

A Thousand Miles— Two Thousand Miles —Without Draining!

Motorists everywhere in the Middle West are running up records with Iso-Vis. Thousands of them are writing in surprise and appreciation to the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to tell the good news of Iso-Vis performance.

One motorist calls Iso-Vis a "peace of mind" motor oil. It is a peaceful feeling to know that the motor is perfectly protected by an oil which maintains a practically constant viscosity—that will stay on the job from start to finish—preventing wear and tear in the engine—preventing trouble—making every mile of motoring smooth! Iso-Vis—the constant viscosity motor oil—gives you that certain knowledge.

Iso-Vis is made in different grades—to meet the requirements of every type of engine. Use the grade recommended for your car. Under normal operating conditions the oil level should be checked every 100 miles. Keep the crankcase at least three-quarters full. If this precaution is taken, a complete draining and flushing of the motor oil once each 1000 miles is all that is necessary.

With new cars equipped with effective oil filtering devices, draining once each 2000 miles or more is sufficient!

Iso-Vis costs more per quart but motorists have found that it costs less per mile. It lasts longer and wears better! Taxi companies have found that by using Iso-Vis they are able to reduce repair bills and to cut the cost of lubrication.

You'll appreciate the efficiency of Iso-Vis (30c per quart). Try it once—and motoring will hold new pleasures. Iso-Vis "F" for Fords.

FLOWERS-ROSEBLOOM BOUT ENDS IN DRAW

CHICAGO, July 4. (AP)—"Tiger" Flowers and Maxie Rosenbloom fought 10 rounds to a draw in the sludgy of the Fourth of July fight card at White Sox Park tonight.

The first eight rounds of the fight were fought during a rain but it failed to slow up either of the middleweights. The fight began with a ring full of fists and the boxers rushed out to renew their feud. The last time they fought, Tiger lost to Rosenbloom on a foul.

The going was fast and furious despite the rain, although Flowers had trouble keeping his feet on the slippery canvass and just before the going ending the tenth round was sounded, Tiger fell on his back and in jumping up, he kicked Rosenbloom in the chin and floored the New Yorker.

 back in his eyes. Albean stood in front of the cannon's mouth as the shell was fired.

Mexico City — American residents in Mexico City had the quietest Fourth of July that old times can remember, chiefly because of business depression and the fact that the foreign colony is considerably smaller than it used to be.

Chicago—Twenty persons were injured as a result of celebrations with firecrackers and guns today. One girl was fatally burned when her dress became ignited from a sparkler.

Zambango, P. I.—During the Fourth of July celebration here, a Moro named Mohammed ran amok and killed his divorced wife to whom he had been refused a reconciliation, killed another woman and wounded his children who ran to the constabulary barracks near by.

Gilroy, Calif.—Clara Welky, three, died today as a result of burns received when her flimsy dress caught fire from an exploding firecracker.

Tracy, Minn.—Tom Maurey, 17, was drowned today in Lake Shetek, apparently after becoming exhausted while swimming.

ROCKFORD YOUTH PLAYS 90 HOLES OF GOLF IN DAY

Rockford, Ill., July 4. (AP)—Peter Gilchrist, 19, is claiming a record for long distance golfing after playing 90 holes on the Ingersoll Park public links here today.

Starting at four o'clock in the morning, Gilchrist sank his last putt at 7:30 o'clock tonight. The straight line distance around the course five times is 30,120 yards or more than 17 miles. A companion, Robert Saunders, 16, played 74 holes.

SOUTH AMERICAN WINS

Kansas City, Mo., July 4. (AP)—Quintin Romero Rojas, South American heavyweight boxer, won over Jack Renault of Canada by a slight margin in a slow uninteresting ten round bout here tonight in the opinion of sports writers.

RISKO BEATS SULLY

Canton, Ohio, July 4. (AP)—John Risko, Cleveland heavyweight, won by a technical knockout in the third round from Sully Montgomery, Chicago, here today.

Macon, Ga., July 4. (AP)—W. L. (Young) Stribling of Macon, light heavyweight, was awarded a referee's decision on a foul from Chuck Wiggins of Indianapolis in the sixth round of a scheduled 10 round bout here today.

Desplaines, Ill.—Two children were injured, perhaps fatally and 20 others were injured less seriously when fireworks exploded in the forest preserve in Desplaines tonight. A crowd of 2,000 persons stampeded in an effort to escape the burning explosives which shot in all directions and some children were trampled.

Niagara Falls, N. Y.—A mother and five of her children were killed and two other members of the family were injured tonight when a New York Central passenger train struck their automobile at a grade crossing in Echota.

Dallas, Texas—Two dead, four dying and 14 injured was the toll of Independence Day celebrations in Texas.

Rochester, N. Y.—Thirty six children were treated at hospitals here today for injuries caused by Fourth of July accidents.

Indianapolis—Miss Ethel Doan, 25, of this city plunged 200 feet to her death here today when her parachute failed to open after a leap from a balloon as part of a Fourth of July celebration.

New Bedford, Mass.—Six year old Jeannette Marchand suffered probably fatal burns tonight while playing with fireworks. A paper hat was set ablaze and before help could reach her the flames had spread to her clothing.

Philadelphia—Seven year old Leo Tasler was shot and killed while playing with his sister in the front yard of the family home today. Joseph Brosky, 17, whom police are seeking, is believed to have fired the shot from the window of a nearby store as part of his celebration of Independence Day. It is not believed that the Tasler boy was intentionally shot.

Great Barrington, Mass.—Mary Sweeney, 7, was burned to death today when her clothing became ignited as she was exploding firecrackers. Her mother was severely burned in attempting to save the child.

Janeville, Wis.—Alvin Dakehouse, 27, of Beloit, was drowned when the boat from which he was fishing was capsized at Shore Lake.

Ossining, N. Y.—Prison rules today held dozens of willing rescuers in check as three young canoeists, unidentified, drowned in the Hudson river near Sing Sing's walls. Many of Sing Sing's 1200 prisoners went as they watched the three youths struggle to save themselves. Guards refused the requests of many of the prisoners to be allowed to attempt to rescue the men. The tragedy upset the prisoners and some refused to eat an Independence Day dinner served later.

An Ex-Buck PRIVATE goes back to FRANCE

Dubbin! Ye Gods, Must It Always be Dubbin!

Editor's Note: This is chapter 78 of the series of articles written by an ex-soldier who is revisiting France as a correspondent for the Journal.

CHAPTER LXXVII
Hey, you! Soldier! Member that Dubbin?

Just what it was no one ever rightly knew. But it was a kind of grease that came in little round boxes and two boxes to a pack was regulation. It's purpose (every much alleged) was to waterproof the hob-nailed hikers. It came about as close to that purpose as the driver of a horse-drawn hack does of picking up a fare at a railroad station in a small town nowadays.

But, boy! How those Sears-Roebuck officers used to yell about it! On Saturday inspections! Standing at attention, the poor private shivered. "What! No dubbin on those shoes?"

This from the officers. "Sir, I-I-I-I-I—" the soldier would stammer. "Take the fellow's name, sergeant. Give him plenty. And he'd draw about two weeks on K. P. Dubbin!"

Of all the products that were foisted on an over-ripe and over-enthusiastic war-obsessed government it was this that was supreme. To its credit it may be said that it would keep out a light mist—a very light mist. But as for the mud and slush of France—well, it was about as practical as so much pulverized sugar. It may have been justified for its moral effect. And it may have been vindicated in the shine it produced for those joke inspections. But, after that, nothing.

Dubbin! Dubbin! Who's got the Dubbin? Two boxes to a pack. Get your supply from the supply sergeant. Rub it in hard. Brush up a polish. And stand there, you bum, while some second lieutenant—whose boots have been polished with real polish by two or three orderlies—picks that flaw in your toe.

Dubbin! Dubbin! Who's got the Dubbin? Usually there was only one box for a squad. No one ever took it seriously except the officers. But it was Dubbin, nevertheless.

Who Sold 'Em That? And it is quite probable that many an infantryman, having just completed a job of bayoneting a machine-gun nest of the enemy, was severely reprimanded because he had forgotten to Dubbin his shoes.

It would be a real pleasure to know just who it was that must have sold those millions of boxes of that gigantic hoax to a war-enthusiastic government at a handsome profit. Doubtless he has six valets now who keep his boots always ready for inspection.

WEIS FUNERAL TO BE HELD THIS AFTERNOON

Prominent Scott County Physician Died Sunday Morning at Manchester.

Funeral services for Dr. J. W. Weis, a prominent physician of Scott county, will be held at the Methodist church in Manchester this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in the new Manchester cemetery.

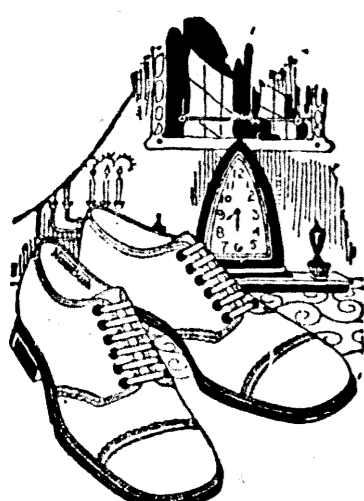

The decedent passed away at his home in Manchester Sunday morning. He was born at Springfield, Mo., Feb. 25, 1850 and in that city received his early schooling. Later he attended medical school in New York City the first year of his studies and at a comparatively early age received his diploma from one of the leading schools of Chicago in 1872.

He returned to his home in Springfield, Mo., where he practiced for some time, later removing to Wisconsin and then to Mattoon, where he resided for almost thirty years, coming to Manchester in 1901. Dr. Weis was unusually successful in his work and his skill was not only recognized by his clientele but by his brother practitioners.

He practiced in Manchester until about four years ago when failing health compelled him to retire. Two years ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis and has since been confined to his home. About a week ago his condition grew worse and he passed away Sunday morning.

Dr. Weis was the son of Peter J. and Elizabeth Sanders Weis and was twice married. His first wife was Eliza H. Allison. To this union were born five children: Grace, deceased; wife of Charles Carmine; Leon Weis, Alton; Josephine Drehten, Detroit; Mich. J. Stanley Weis, Mattoon, Ill.; and Ethel Heaton of Chicago. The first Mrs. Weis passed away in 1895 and he was married to Jennie Saye at West Plains, Mo., in 1898.

LARGE CROWD ENJOYS FOURTH AT HOSPITAL

Program For Patients at Jacksonville State Hospital Features Fourth in City.

Twenty eight hundred patients and thousands of visitors enjoyed the monster Fourth of July celebration put on by Jacksonville State hospital all day yesterday, beginning with athletic contests in the morning, continuing with a big program in the afternoon and ending with a marvelous fireworks display at night.

The day began at nine a. m., when the patients and many visitors gathered on the athletic field for various contests. One of the most interesting of which was a women's patients' baseball game. The teams were designated the Red Sox and the Blue Sox, and the Red Sox took the game by a good margin. In the big tug-of-war between soldier and civilian patients the soldiers, doubtless by virtue of their military training, won. Other contests were 100 yard dash, 50 yard dash, crawdaddy race, sack race, hoop race and shoe race.

At 11 o'clock a splendid dinner was served the whole State hospital family in the dining halls and at one o'clock the day's celebration was resumed with a grand review of the whole hospital.

The hundreds of patients, men dressed all in white and women wearing white middie and black gymnasium bloomers, and carrying flags marched all around the grounds led by the splendid executive men's band. They were viewed from the stand by Dr. Hill, head of the great institution and by other hospital and state officials and their families.

After the review the whole body of patients went thru their calisthenics drill, exciting admiration in the crowd by their spirited performance.

The balloon ascension and aerial trapeze work of Robert Cole of St. Louis, one of the most looked for events of the day then followed. The big balloon swept upward with a rush, and was soon hundreds of feet up. It then seemed to stand nearly still, and Mr. Cole performed on his little bar.

Shortly after he cut loose from the balloon, and parachuted gently to the ground, landing in the State hospital tomato patch.

The patients then filed into the seats reserved for them and the platform program began. After the anti-distributed cold drinks and large sacks of peanuts to their charges to make the holiday seem complete.

The program began with a trapeze performance, furnished by professional talent after which the State Hospital Entertainers, all of whom are patients, took the stage for the next to minutes and gave as good a program as ever graced a professional platform in the city, giving musical and dance novelties, banjo music, vocal solos, singing by a girl chorus, and saw music.

The Kiwanis quartet, composed of J. Chester Colton, F. E. Wainmaker, Lee Anderson and E. R. Franklin then rendered a few vocal numbers and were well received.

After the Kiwanians had done their bit, professional entertainers, out of St. Louis, put on a number of acts. The two MacDonalds with their comedy bicycle act made a hit, as did Bill Larrabee the famous clown.

The afternoon program was closed with a military drill by the executive men's band. The band put on a wonderful exhibition, further enhancing the already excellent reputation that they bear here.

The patients were then regaled with fried chicken and other goodies, after which they had the opportunity of witnessing a second balloon ascension.

At 6:15 the band gave a short concert and was followed with music rendered by the St. Louis entertainers.

The big event of the day was the monster fireworks display, which began at nine o'clock. There were many beautiful rockets shot but those arousing the most interest were the picture pieces, such as "Niagara Falls," "Crime World," "In Rotation," "George Washington," "The Battle of the Sea," "Old Glory," "The Garden of the Gods," and others, all of which were quite realistic.

At 9:30 the patients returned to their dormitories and the hundreds of out of town visitors, attracted to the hospital celebration, left for their homes.

Visitors from a distance were especially interested in the tent where products of the patients' skill in handicrafts were displayed. Weaving, tailoring, toymaking and artistry were all represented by exquisite articles.

A mock "side show" in which were such displayed as "only red but in captivity" (chick bits), "famous hair-as-d" (hot dogs), "King T's tooth" etc., aroused much interest.

Throughout the day everything was done to make the celebration happy and for the state's wards. Fruit and refreshment stands for both men and women were in operation all day long.

SIX PAIN FINES
James Duncan, Ray Kollogg, William Ely, Sylvester Corbin, Edna Stice and Bertha Sparks, all arrested Sunday on charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, were arraigned yesterday before Justice Fairbank and fined five dollars and costs each.

VISITS AT VIEIRA HOME
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Matheson and John DeCrestos of Chicago, were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Nellie Vieira of North Church street.

AT HAHN HOME
Mr. and Mrs. Herman V. Hahn of LaGrange, Ill., spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Hahn's parents Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hahn of 1201 South Clay Avenue.

WESTRAT SPEAKS AT UNION CHURCH MEET

Baptist Church Pastor Addresses Large Audience on "Under Two Flags."

The Rev. L. A. Westrate, pastor of the First Baptist church, delivered the sermon at the Sunday evening union church service on the lawn of Grace M. E. church, speaking from the subject, "Under Two Flags." Rev. Mr. Westrate's Bible text was taken from Exodus 21 and 22.

Rev. J. F. Langston, pastor of Trinity Episcopal church, presided over the meeting, and the invocation was given by the Rev. H. B. Lewis, pastor of Grace church, who read from the scriptures, Ex. 12:17. Prayer was offered by Rev. John McGowan Stevenson, pastor of the State Street Presbyterian church and the offertory solo by Mrs. D. L. Hardin.

A vivid picture of Revolution—many times when the Declaration of Independence was signed and men stood ready at the ropes to fling out the glad news to the countryside, was painted by Rev. Mr. Westrate. These men established the basis of our government and they established it on a Christian basis, the speaker said.

"The result is that the present generation lives under two flags, the flag of Christianity and Old Glory. To injure either of these flags is to injure our country, and to respect them is to respect our country, not the flag waving, noise-making respect, but the kind that makes men give up their lives that the government might live on."

"The flag of Christianity is the only flag that may be flown above our national emblem. The five wars that have stained our soil have been wars of honor fought for unselfish aims and for the upholding of the right."

"There is a parallel in olden times of the living under two flags for the sons of Israel were led in the day time by the pillar of cloud and by night by a pillar of fire. Old Glory led us to victory as a great and good nation but all would be of no avail if we were not followers of that one flag that may be flown above it, the flag of Christianity."

"Our greatest need now is for stronger, stancher men in our life, day by day and for the Bible to be restored to the schools. When this is done not only the foundations of the church will be strengthened but also the foundations of the nation as well."

Rev. H. K. Young, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, will preach next Sunday's sermon. It was announced, Benediction at Sunday's meeting was offered by the Rev. F. M. Rife.

FIREWORKS BLAMED FOR TWO FIRES

Fourth of July celebration is blamed for two fires in the city yesterday, both minor affairs, and the severe burning of a fireman's house.

Joe Sullivan of the fire department, whose home is on North East street, was badly burned about the face and hands in attempting to extinguish an awning fire at the East State street entrance of the Jacksonville Hotel.

Some celebrator had thrown a lighted firecracker into the awning, which was soon ablaze. The ropes of the awning burned thru and the flaming piece of canvas fell on the fireman.

The second call was to the residence of Joseph Mann, 320 East Wabash street, where fireworks lighting on the roof had set fire to the shingles. The blaze was quickly put out. The house is the property of John Curtis.

Both fires occurred at about half past ten yesterday morning.

The Knights Templar will conduct the services at the grave.

Mr. Crawford was born in Madison county, Kentucky, Nov. 21, 1849. He came to this county in 1868 and farmed north of Jacksonville for a short time, later moving to this city where he engaged in the carpentry trade till 1878 when he became the owner of a small planing mill which later became the Central Planing Mill company. In December of 1923 he retired from the firm and the Crawford Lumber company was incorporated.

The decedent was married on December 25, 1872 to Miss Henrietta Lindsay who with the following children survive him: Thomas D., Mobile, Ala.; Mrs. Ella Mae Stevens, Ft. Meyers, Fla.; Walter A., Lee R., and Clara L. Shibe, all of Jacksonville. One son, Jesse, predeceased him in death. One brother, Thomas B. THIEVES TAKE FOUR AUTOMOBILES
Two Cars are Recovered—Others Missing Last Night.

With the great crowds of cars parked at Jacksonville State hospital for the festivities there yesterday car thieves had a large range of choice offered them. Careful policing prevented much business in the auto thieving line, but the police received reports of four stolen, two of which have since been found by the officers.

Millard Reese of Franklin is the loser of a Ford motor sedan having license tag number 706-175 and engine number 14545879. The car was a 1927 model and was painted grey.

A four door 1925 model Ford sedan belonging to Edward Jackson of 322 Reid street was also among the missing.

The two cars reported missing and then found on the State hospital grounds were a Chrysler 6 belonging to J. W. Benson and a Chevrolet coach belonging to Mr. Antrobus, a visitor in the city from Ottawa, Ill.

Police officers estimate that the number of cars handled by traffic men at the State hospital gates Monday exceeds anything in their experience. They estimate the number of cars conservatively to from two to three thousand. If each car carried five passengers that would indicate a crowd of from ten to fifteen thousand motorists, besides the many who came about or by bus.

Cars were parked in a solid mass from the Main street entrance of the grounds to the emergency gate on West street, three to five cars deep, and besides several blocks east and south of the institution were parked side by side.

From six until eight, according to officers, a solid line entered the gate of the hospital grounds, and it took the crowd of cars a solid hour to come out, using both West street and Main street gates.
